Other discussion – Aaron Leffingwell asked if everyone understands the budget. Had he known that most didn't he would not have voted in favor. Becky Oglesby stated we can live with it. The economy is turning around. Council needs to know exactly what is going on and we must stay within the budge. She is in favor of no Additional and asks everyone to be conservative. Aaron Leffingwell stated he thought the council should reconvene the budget meeting and Daryl Kramer agreed. Other from the audience spoke up and that it is time we are doing something to bring in some revenue to the county, such as getting together with other counties and lobby the state legislature, charging cars that enter the Brookville Lake Property. Mr. Franzman stated he thought that council was not looking for ways for other revenue but instead were asking the county employees to take the hit. Gary Marmouze reminded the council that living cost have increased but pay doesn't. Maybe it is time to look to a tax increase. A motion was made by Aaron Leffingwell to have a special meeting on Feb. 5 to go through the budget and 2nd by Daryl Kramer. Jeff Koch, Becky Oglesby and Hollie Maxie were opposed and Daryl Kramer, Joe Sizemore, Daryl Kramer and Aaron Leffingwell voted in favor.

Adjourn: A motion was made by Becky Oglesby to adjourn and was 2nd by Hollie Maxie. Motion carried.
